SUBJECT No. 249.

Kannambadi project.

Mr. Amble Annaiya Pandit, Yedatore Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—It is prayed that the estimate prepared for the Kannambadi tank (proposed Cauvery reservoir) may be dropped as it is not necessary.

The member stated that on subsequent enquiry he learnt that the project would be remunerative and that it would not cause unhealthiness to Mysore and other towns. He requested that Government may consider whether these conditions would be fulfilled before sanctioning the project.

Reply of Government.—The matter will be fully considered.

SUBJECT No. 250.

Mr. Amble Annaiya Pandit, Yedatore Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—It is prayed that Hosakere of the Honnuhole Nala in the Chamrajnagar Taluk, for which an estimate has been prepared, may be repaired early Withdrawn.

SUBJECT No. 251.

Paditara and Deeparadhane to Divyalingeswaraswami and Gopalakrishnaswami Temples at Haradanahalli.

Mr. Amble Annaiya Pandit, Yedatore Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—It is prayed that the surplus funds at the credit of the Sri Chamarajeswaraswami temple at Chamrajnagar be invested in Government Pro-notes and the interest accruing thereon be utilized for the Paditara and Deeparadhane of the famous old temples of Divyalingeswaraswami and Gopalakrishnaswami at Haradanahalli. It is also prayed that a fourth of the balance of the receipts of the Jahgir lands endowed to the Chamarajeswaraswami temple be ordered to be made over permanently for the benefit of the Sri Srikanteswaraswami temple at Nanjangud.

Reply of Government.—The question of the Chamrajnagar temple contributing for the benefit of the Nanjangud temple will be considered. The other representations are noted.

SUBJECT No. 252.

Compelling vrittidars to build houses in the Yedatore extension.

Mr. Amble Annaiya Pandit, Yedatore Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—The Government of His Highness the Maharaja have built sixty Agrahar houses for the use of Brahmins and granted them sixty vrittis one to each, on condition that they should pray for the welfare of the country. But now all the houses are in a dilapidated condition and the vrittidars are simply enjoying the vrittis without fulfilling the terms under which they were granted. It is therefore requested that they should be compelled to build houses in the new extension of Yedatore.

Reply of Government.—All possible encouragement will be shown for the construction of houses in the extension by grant of sites free. The question of compelling the vrittidars to build houses will be considered.
